Part VI, Line 2 - two of the club's directors, Judy and Scott Dilling, are husband and wife

Part VI, Line 5 - During the year it was discovered that a club member, acting as a team treasurer, had spent approx.

$7,000 of the club funds on personal expenses. Legal action is being pursued.

Part VI, Line 6 & 7a - The club has members that elect a board as the governing body for the club. The board does not have to seek approval from the membership for general club management decisions. The members must approve any changes to the club's bylaws.

Part VI, Line 11a - The tax forms are provided to the VP of Finance for review.

Part VI, Line 19 - Club financial statements and other documents are available to the membership upon request.

Part VI, Line 15 - The board reviews the pay for it's employees by reviewing current rates for similar job duties. Contractor pay rates are reviewed and compared to current compensation rates used by nearby soccer clubs for similar services.

Part VIII – Line 11b:

Some teams in the club participate in the NorCal League in the area. Teams remit league fees to the club and the club then passed those fees on to the NorCal League. These fees are generally for the spring season play

Part VIII – Line 10a:

1. Snack Bar Sales – Represents the sale of food and beverages at one of more of the venues used by the Club and is sold for the benefit of the membership. Net income for the fiscal year was $2,044. This activity has historically achieved break-even results and is primarily conducted for the benefit of the parents, players and other spectators at one of the Clubs soccer field complexes. Net proceeds used to offset costs for the benefit of the membership.

Part IX – Line 21:

Payments to affiliates represent association dues, player dues and competitive team/league fees and were made payable to:

California Youth Soccer Association – North
1040 Serpentine Lane, Suite 201
Pleasanton, CA 94566

Part VIII- Relationship of Activities to the Accomplishment of Exempt Purposes:

Line 2a –Tournaments provide opportunities for players to gain additional experience with players throughout the state of California. Tournament are generally structured and intended to at least break even, or generate a a reasonable margin of cash for Club. This additional cash is used to offset cost for the benefit of the membership.

Line 2b – Training and Coaching fees are additional assessments to players who placed on competitive teams. These fees are used to pay for experienced trainers and licensed coaches who provide additional specialized skills training and professional/experienced coaching primarily to the club's competitive program. The training and coaching fees are intended to offset a significant portion of the costs of providing these specialized trainers and coaches and the additional program costs incurred to support a competitive team program, such as additional field cost due to more practice time and additional cost of referee services.

Line 1b – Registration fees paid by the membership provide the primary source of income for the Club and provide resources required to rent field space, purchase field and game equipment, provide game referees, pay CYSA dues, perform background checks for volunteer
